

GAINS

ent we offer the
Fancy Cassimere
$6.
14 years, for $10 and sizes 2 to 6 years.

PARTMT

... $125
... 35
... large and attract
... nit Caps.

Y & CO.,

... and Pine.
... all free to any address.

RS!

time to give them
... store of & BRO.

ET,
... the very new-
... KID, of FRENCH
... TOR SKIN SLIP-

... red goods are in
... nois lined, and at

... logue you can not
... to member of the

SECTION NOTICE

... of the stockholders of the Parson
... (P) directors or officers of the company, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... GEO. W. PARKER,
... President

... AGENT
... 1000
... 1000

... NATIONAL BANK of St. Louis, Mo.
... the regular annual meeting of the
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

... the date of the meeting, in the city
... the date of the meeting, in the city

THE LEADING MEDIUM OF CHRISTMAS ADVERTISING!

VOL. XXXIV.

(Trade Mark Registered.)

POAKES' CANDIES

None genuine unless the name
Oakes is on each box.

419 Olive.

Send $1, $2 or $5.

By Express to any address

Shaving Cases, Razors in pairs and sets, Gentlemen's Companions, etc. NO
USELESS RUBBISH to encourage profanity, but my own fine Full Caneved English Razors, which is a luxury to shave with, fitted in beautiful cases of either Leather, Plush, Coralline or Satinwood. Also a full line of Sissors Cases and Ladies' Companions in all the latest designs. Elegant Carving Sets and Cases and Everything in FINE CUTLERY.

A.J. JORDAN, 612 Washington Av

SILK HANDKERCHIEFS

SILK OR WOOL TIE-NECKERS

THE HOLIDAY TRADE.

IN GREAT VARIETY from the Cheapest to the Best.

Orders Promptly and Carefully Filled.

SAM'L C. DAVIS & CO.

THE "HARVARD" ROLLER SKATE.

All Clamps

Per Pair

$4.00.

The "ACME HOWARD" Ten and Roller Skate combined with ACME TOP, $6.00

Rowlett's Star Half Skate, $3.50 and $5; all Clamps, 4.00

Raymond Extension Club $3 and $4; Raymond Racer, 4.50

ICE SKATES AND POLO GOODS.

C. J. CHAPIN ARMS CO. 902 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo.

LEONHARD ROOS,

PRACTICAL FURRIER,

617 North Fourth Street.

The Latest Designs in Winter Wraps for

Ladies in

Seal, Mink, Plush, Velvet and Silk.

ORDER WORK A SPECIALTY.

All goods guaranteed as represented. Repairs done in best manner.

1st CLASS.

MADE TO ORDER.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED BY

the Well-known, Practical

Shirtmaker,

E. M. ESPENHAIN,

800 OLIVE STREET.

AT THE

WONDERFUL

5c Store,

Washington Av

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1885.—TWELVE PAGES.

NO. 146.

LATEST EDITORIAL

TWELVE PAGES.

RICH CALIFORNIANS

Millionaires Whose Money Failed to Secure Social Recognition.

Sharon and His Marriage With Sarah

Althea Hill—"Lucky" Baldwin—New

York the Mecca of California Money-

Makers—Poor Senator Fair—Stanford, the Junior Senator.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 12.—An old Californian last night gave me some interesting information concerning the rich men of this State. He said that Sharon, who he called a "rich man," was the neighborhood of $200,000. He says that the current impression upon the Pacific Coast is that the marriage between Sharon and Sarah

Althea Hill was a genuine one, and that she recovered her widow's interest in the estate. Sharon was never popular in San Francisco. He so openly defied the laws of society that he was received in San Francisco as a social outcast. He attended a full dinner party at a leading San Francisco gentleman's house in the rough dress of a mining camp with his trousers

tucked in his boots. He was on account of his unconventional association dropped by San Francisco society. When Sharon's daughter

married this eccentric Californian her father was delighted. He found out from Sir Thomas, his son-in-law, that he was a very rich man. He had a full dinner party at a leading San Francisco gentleman's house in the

rough dress of a mining camp with his trousers

tucked in his boots. He was on account of his unconventional association dropped by San Francisco society. When Sharon's daughter

married this eccentric Californian her father was delighted. He found out from Sir Thomas, his son-in-law, that he was a very rich man. He had a full dinner party at a leading San Francisco gentleman's house in the

rough dress of a mining camp with his trousers

tucked in his boots. He was on account of his unconventional association dropped by San Francisco society. When Sharon's daughter

married this eccentric Californian her father was delighted. He found out from Sir Thomas, his son-in-law, that he was a very rich man. He had a full dinner party at a leading San Francisco gentleman's house in the

rough dress of a mining camp with his trousers

tucked in his boots. He was on account of his unconventional association dropped by San Francisco society. When Sharon's daughter

married this eccentric Californian her father was delighted. He found out from Sir Thomas, his son-in-law, that he was a very rich man. He had a full dinner party at a leading San Francisco gentleman's house in the

rough dress of a mining camp with his trousers

tucked in his boots. He was on account of his unconventional association dropped by San Francisco society. When Sharon's daughter

married this eccentric Californian her father was delighted. He found out from Sir Thomas, his

MORTON IN COURT

Judge Laughlin Presents the "R. F.

M." Note to Judge Cady.

The Story of the Note Told by the Parties Who Received It—The Encounter at the Carriage—How

Morton Tried to Beg Off—Mr.

Laughlin's Excoriation of Wolves

Who Go About Looking for Women

—The Case Taken Under Advi-sment.

The case of Richard F. Morton, alias Jam-son, took up several hours of the time of the Judge of the First District Police Court this morning. Evidently great preparations had been made for it, as when it was called there was an influx of well-dressed people from the office of the clerk of the court at the court-room. First came Stenographer Oldfield and following him were Mr. Henry

Laughlin, Mr. James P. Kerr and three lady members of his family. Mr. Frank Ryan and the accused

R. F. Morton. The two latter took the seats reserved for prisoners and counsel. The three members of Mr. Kerr's family, ladies, stood up together and were sworn to by Mr. Kerr. Mr.

Laughlin took the Prosecuting Attorney's seat and called Mr. Kerr's servant girl. This witness told how a carriage driver called at Mr. Kerr's residence on Wednesday evening and presented to her a note from New Castle, Michigan, in which the driver was asked to take Mr. Kerr to the city. The note was received, and how Mr. Kerr was then called and was escorted to the stand by her husband. The lady was rather pale and apparently distressed. She is a lady of 38 or 40 and looks like a good, home-loving woman.

She was plain of face, and kind and retiring in her manner. She said that her maiden name was

J. (Arrie) McMillan and that at present she was for Mr. Morton, who was now in the city.

She was asked if she knew him. She replied that she had never seen him before. She then told the story of receiving the letter. The girl gave it to her, saying that the driver had said that it was for her. As the envelope bore her maiden name she supposed it was and opened the let-

ter. The letter was not altogether legible, but such of the contents as she could read she said was improper. Her husband was then sworn to

and she was asked if she knew him. She replied

that she had never seen him before. She then told

the story of receiving the letter. The girl gave

it to her, saying that the driver had said that

it was for her. As the envelope bore her maiden name she supposed it was and opened the let-

ter. The letter was not altogether legible, but

such of the contents as she could read she said

was improper. Her husband was then sworn to

and she was asked if she knew him. She replied

that she had never seen him before. She then told

the story of receiving the letter. The girl gave

it to her, saying that the driver had said that

it was for her. As the envelope bore her maiden name she supposed it was and opened the let-

ter. The letter was not altogether legible,

$1.50.
The Price of Gas Fixed Yesterday by the St. Louis Gas Light Company.

This Proposition Met by a Sensational Injunction Suit Filed To-Day.

Startling Allegations Concerning the Management of the St. Louis Company.

Charges of Insolence, Mismanagement and Misappropriation of Funds—Money Borrowed to Pay Pretended Dividends—President Alleged to Have Sold Nearly All of His Stock—The Plant and Mains Declared to be Worn-Out and Defective—The Company Asserted to be in a Rotten Condition—What the St. Louis Directors Say—The Water Gas Bill.

The Board of Directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

used to consumers, are many of them, old, worn and defective, by reason of which a very large loss from leakage, amounting to many thousands of dollars, is annually incurred. It is estimated that the gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage. The gas light company is losing $100,000 annually from leakage.

holders of said corporation, lies in the intervention of a court of equity to restrain and prevent the consummation of the proposed sale.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for an order enjoining and restraining, provisionally and permanently, said corporation and said directors, their agents, servants, employees and assigns, and each and every one of them, from paying the dividend claimed by them, from reducing the price at which gas is sold hereafter to its consumers, and from threatening or endeavoring to do so, and from doing all and every the acts contained and threatened hereinbefore set out, and from doing any other and further relief as to the court shall seem meet and just and as may be in consonance with equity.

The case is entered on the February return docket and will not be assigned until the February term unless counsel should ask in the meantime for a preliminary injunction.

Previously the case was found immediately after the petition was filed standing on the front steps of the St. Louis Gas Light Company's building on Olive street. When the Post-Dispatch reporter reached the place, he found the building surrounded by a large number of men, some of whom were holding signs that read "No Gas Light Company" and "No Gas Light Company".

Mr. Newman, who is the president of the company, is a man of about 50 years of age, with dark hair, a high forehead and a serious expression. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie. He is standing in the middle of a group of men who are gathered outside the St. Louis Gas Light Company building.

Mr. Newman, who is the president of the company, is a man of about 50 years of age, with dark hair, a high forehead and a serious expression. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie. He is standing in the middle of a group of men who are gathered outside the St. Louis Gas Light Company building.

Mr. Newman, who is the president of the company, is a man of about 50 years of age, with dark hair, a high forehead and a serious expression. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie. He is standing in the middle of a group of men who are gathered outside the St. Louis Gas Light Company building.

Mr. Newman, who is the president of the company, is a man of about 50 years of age, with dark hair, a high forehead and a serious expression. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie. He is standing in the middle of a group of men who are gathered outside the St. Louis Gas Light Company building.

in your honor's hands for approval. Having received the necessary authority, I have been authorized to sign the same on your behalf.

At the time of the meeting of the board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

The board of directors of the St. Louis Gas Light Company held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the long time for the meeting of the board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel. The board of directors of the company, which was held at the St. Louis Hotel, was composed of the following members: John S. Newman, George W. Fabbick, Peter Nicholson, Dwight Durkee and John J. O'Fallon.

THE WILL.
How the Late Wm. H. Vanderbilt Disposes of His Wealth.

Ten Million Dollars to Each of the Eight Children.

A Like Amount Bequeathed to Various Charitable Institutions.

The Widow Given the Family Residence, Horses, Carriages, Paintings, Etc., and an Annuity of $200,000—The Remainder of the Fortune Equally Divided Between Cornelius and Wm. K. Vanderbilt—The Railroad Stocks to be Held in Bulk—Chauncey M. Depew and Henry H. Anderson Appointed Administrators.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch. New York, December 12.—Mr. Chauncey M. Depew was yesterday named as one of the administrators of the estate of the late William H. Vanderbilt. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions. The will of the late Mr. Vanderbilt, which was made public yesterday, bequeathed to each of his eight children a sum of ten million dollars, and also bequeathed a like amount to various charitable institutions.

except pictures, statuary and works of art, which shall be divided among the children in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

Second—I devise unto my daughter, Margaret Louise, wife of Eliot F. Shepard, her heirs and assigns, forever, the house in which she now resides, and the lot on which it stands (which lot is well described) at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, with all my rights in Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street in front of said premises.

Third—I devise unto my daughter, Emily Thorne, wife of William Thorne, her heirs and assigns, forever, the house in which she now resides, and the lot on which it stands (which lot is well described) at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, with all my rights in Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street in front of said premises.

Fourth—I devise unto my daughter, Florence Adele, wife of Eliot F. Shepard, her heirs and assigns, forever, the house in which she now resides, and the lot on which it stands (which lot is well described) at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, with all my rights in Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street in front of said premises.

Fifth—I devise unto my daughter, Eliza O., wife of William K. Vanderbilt, her heirs and assigns, forever, the house in which she now resides, and the lot on which it stands (which lot is well described) at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, with all my rights in Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street in front of said premises.

Sixth—I devise unto my daughter, Mary Louise, wife of William K. Vanderbilt, her heirs and assigns, forever, the house in which she now resides, and the lot on which it stands (which lot is well described) at Fifty-second street and Fifth avenue, New York, with all my rights in Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street in front of said premises.

Seventh—I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

Eighth—I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

Ninth—I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

Tenth—I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

FOR CHRISTMAS!
5000
SOLID SILVER
THIMBLES.
ON 25 CENTS EACH.

ANY INITIAL ENGRAVED.
BUY AT ONCE
OF THE
Merrill & Jaccard Jewelry Co.,
4th and Locust Sts.
FINE DIAMONDS
AT THE LOWEST PRICE.

Should not have on hand at the time of the sale a sufficient amount of each of the descriptions of goods specified to make up the amounts in the several clauses, I direct that the deficiency be made up by the sale of the goods on hand at the time of the sale, and that the balance of the goods on hand at the time of the sale be sold at the same price as the goods on hand at the time of the sale.

Other terms of the will. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit. I give and bequeath to the trustees of the United States National Bank, New York, a sum of $200,000, to be paid to the bank in such manner as the trustees may see fit.

THE DAYS ARE MADE GOOD
Torlina & Webb
Shows more styles of Shoes at the Departments.
Men's, Ladies', Misses', and Children's.
The stock is without doubt the largest and cheapest. Open until 9 p. m. Saturdays.

TORLINA & WEBB
The Largest and Cheapest Shoe Store in the City.
Open until 9 p. m. Saturdays.

TALE OF YOUNG TEXAS
From the New York Mail and Express.
"You want me to relate some of my life, don't you?" said Col. Anthony R. Hunkley, Texan veteran of the Civil War, the other day to a Mail and Express reporter. The wide grin which he wore did not conceal the fact that he was a man of many adventures, and that he had been in the thick of many of the most important events of the war.

I have outlived the age of gallantry, continued. "I was always a man of action. When the Alabama was captured, I was one of the first to go on board. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured. I was with the ship when it was captured, and I was with the ship when it was captured.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., December 12.—The city across the bridge, which was the scene of the late fire, is now a scene of desolation. The city is a mass of ruins, and the people are suffering from the loss of their homes and property. The city is a mass of ruins, and the people are suffering from the loss of their homes and property.

NEARLY $400,000.
The Amount Extorted From Consumers in the Year by the Gas Company.
Sixty Per Cent in Dividends, Besides $80 a Share From the Judgments Paid by the City, Represents the Earnings of the Old Monopoly—How the Citizens Are Oppressed—Gas Earnings.
Mr. Theodore Newman, the president of the St. Louis Gas Light Company, in his report to the stockholders of that corporation last Monday, stated that in the year just closed there had been extorted from the people of St. Louis a sum of nearly $400,000. This was accomplished by the company's policy of paying 60 per cent of its earnings in dividends to its stockholders, and the balance of 40 per cent in the form of a dividend to the city of St. Louis. The company's earnings for the year were $1,000,000, and the dividends paid to the stockholders were $600,000. The city of St. Louis received $400,000 in dividends from the company. This was a total of $1,000,000 in dividends paid to the stockholders and the city of St. Louis. The company's earnings for the year were $1,000,000, and the dividends paid to the stockholders were $600,000. The city of St. Louis received $400,000 in dividends from the company. This was a total of $1,000,000 in dividends paid to the stockholders and the city of St. Louis.

THE CORPORATION MAN.
Jay Gould Seeking to Evade the Payment of a Judgment.
By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.
St. Louis, December 12.—John W. Hogan, confidential clerk of Attorney General O'Brien, arrived from New York yesterday morning, where he had gone to deliver to the sheriff of that city a writ of execution against the Western Union Telegraph Company. It was issued by direction of the court to satisfy the judgment obtained by the State of New York against that corporation last April. The original amount of the judgment was $250,000 for corporation and cost of litigation through the court of appeals. Upon the judgment for back taxes by that corporation to the Comptroller of the State of New York, it was found that the corporation had paid to the Comptroller $100,000, and that the balance of $150,000 had been applied by the Comptroller to the payment of the corporation's taxes. The corporation had paid to the Comptroller $100,000, and that the balance of $150,000 had been applied by the Comptroller to the payment of the corporation's taxes. The corporation had paid to the Comptroller $100,000, and that the balance of $150,000 had been applied by the Comptroller to the payment of the corporation's taxes.

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYER.
A Chicago Teamster's Novel and Successful Scheme.
Chicago, December 12.—One of the most novel, yet successful, schemes of robbery which has been unearthed in Chicago for some time was broken up yesterday by the arrest of John Flatters, a teamster, who was charged with the robbery of a large sum of money from a bank. Flatters was a teamster who was employed by a large firm in Chicago. He was charged with the robbery of a large sum of money from a bank. Flatters was a teamster who was employed by a large firm in Chicago. He was charged with the robbery of a large sum of money from a bank. Flatters was a teamster who was employed by a large firm in Chicago. He was charged with the robbery of a large sum of money from a bank.

DO YOU LIKE GOOD BREAD?
Be sure you get a Loaf with this Label Attached.
Bread and death notes will be entered at the rate of one cent per loaf.
BREAD.
At the annual meeting of the General Grievance Committee, representing the engineers of the Illinois Pacific Railroad, held at St. Louis, December 11, at 8 p. m., the following resolutions were adopted: That the committee be authorized to take such action as may be deemed proper to secure the removal of the present management of the Illinois Pacific Railroad, and to secure the appointment of a new management. The committee be authorized to take such action as may be deemed proper to secure the removal of the present management of the Illinois Pacific Railroad, and to secure the appointment of a new management.

HOME SHOE CO.
GENTS' GAITERS, GENTS' BALS, GENTS' BUTTONS, ALL OUR OWN MAKE.
We also carry a line of Slippers made by the best manufacturers East.
Gents' Red Embroidered Slippers, Gents' Gold Embroidered Slippers, Gents' Blue Embroidered Slippers, Gents' Wine Alligator Slippers, Gents' Black Alligator Slippers, Gents' Goat Slippers.
218 N. Eighth Street, second door from Olive Street.
GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
Bangs and Pompadours!
And Everything in the House, at
F. DeDONATO'S, 519 Olive St.

MITCHELL FURNITURE CO.
607 NORTH FOURTH STREET.
We have put in a complete line of new styles and designs of Furniture, and guarantee our work first-class and prices the lowest in the city.
AMUSEMENTS.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Two Performances To-Day, Matinee at 2 p. m., Evening at 8 p. m.
"I Hated a Word, Hate It!"
M. S. K. A. E.
"CASTLETON"
And Her Company of Comedians, in the Musical "Castleton."
CRAZY PATCH.
Sunday Night.
THE DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH ACTRESS
ADELAIDE MOORE
AND HER
Superb Legitimate Company.
Sunday Night.
THE DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH ACTRESS
ADELAIDE MOORE
AND HER
Superb Legitimate Company.

RHEA!
Broadway & Trevelyan's
Palace Museum.
North Sixth Street, near Franklin Ave.
JAMES A. BARNES, Sole Manager.
PRINCESS LUCY
AND
ENTIRE NEW STAGE SHOW.
TEN CENTS. ONE LITTLE DIME. TEN CENTS.
Admission to Museum, Menagerie and Theatre.
STAR RINK.
To-night, "POLY"—Last appearance of famous "POLY" team.
To-morrow, "POLY"—Last appearance of famous "POLY" team.
To-night, "POLY"—Last appearance of famous "POLY" team.
To-morrow, "POLY"—Last appearance of famous "POLY" team.

DIAMOND BUYERS!
POSITIVELY THE LAST MONTH.
An Opportunity That Seldom Occurs!
The undersigned has determined to give up business, and will sell his entire stock of diamonds, pearls, and other jewelry, at a great reduction. The stock is large and of the best quality. The diamonds are of the finest cut, and the pearls are of the finest quality. The jewelry is of the finest quality, and is sold at a great reduction. The stock is large and of the best quality. The diamonds are of the finest cut, and the pearls are of the finest quality. The jewelry is of the finest quality, and is sold at a great reduction.

JOHN LIPSHUT.
317 North Fourth St., St. Louis.
Sole and exclusive agent for the sale of the "Diamonds of the East," a collection of the finest diamonds, pearls, and other jewelry, ever assembled in this country. The collection is of the finest quality, and is sold at a great reduction. The stock is large and of the best quality. The diamonds are of the finest cut, and the pearls are of the finest quality. The jewelry is of the finest quality, and is sold at a great reduction.

Christmas comes next—but first we've got to get ready. Let's take a look around the city, and see what to buy and where to buy it. Suppose we start down Washington Avenue, and as we approach Ninth Street stop at the House Furnishing Department of Simmons Hardware Company. There's nothing there but what's useful, and much that is ornamental. Brasses and bronzes and silver bronzes. The buyers of such know what we mean, and if we could put in cold print the odd conceits there are in bronzes, they wouldn't want them. Among the bronzes, sconces, mirrors, lamps, coal holders, umbrella racks, candlebrasses and all sorts of brass goods, and oh, so cheap! I ask the reason why they are sold at prices so much lower than elsewhere. The polite clerk informs me that the house import all these goods direct, and in that way buy them much lower than others can. Why, it seems just like buying a dollar note for a fifty-cent piece. I am assured that the low prices are explained by the large business of the house, all done on the low-priced system. Well, let's look along a little further. Here we are! Toilet cases, manicure cases, scissors in all sorts of cases, covered with plush and lined with satin. Tools for the toilet, few or many, as you may desire. Triplicate mirrors, a rather dangerous gift, but still quite popular. Imagine a woman not of the pretty persuasion catching the first unconscious glimpse of half a dozen sides of her face all at once. Look out! are you reckless enough to risk a triplicate mirror? If not, take a look at the immense variety of silver-plated ware. Here are the genuine Rogers goods of every shape, style and finish under the sun. You don't know how far a dollar or two will go in this line of goods. We ask, can they be genuine at such low prices? "Oh, yes, we guarantee them," says the child-like and bland salesman, and the house employs none but "George Washingtons" to sell their goods. Long lines of table cutlery, Rogers', Russell's and other standard makes; and then the carvers. Handles of real African stag, ivory or pearl, with blades of Damascus steel and edged like a scimitar. Well, probably there is no more useful and WELL-LIKED gift than a set of good carvers that will always stay sharp and hit the joints, no matter how venerable the turkey may be. But, we say, what have you for boys, and then the good and truthful young man shows up with pleasure, saying: "We've got them on the list." "What better for a boy than a good pocket knife? Why, a boy always wants a knife, and never forgets the first good spick-and-span new one he ever had, after he had used up his father's old one. Such a lot of knives at 25 cents, 50 cents, 75 cents and $1 each, just about one-half the prices asked elsewhere; and skates, both ice and roller, boys' sleds, velocipedes, wheelbarrows, tool chests, bicycles, foot balls, etc. Why, I shan't get twenty feet from the door to-day, so will have to tell you the rest some other day. If you want to buy $1 worth for 50 cents, go to SIMMONS HARDWARE CO. P. S.—What a lovely berry bowl, how much is it? See, it is marked in plain figures, $7.50. Why, they asked me $13.50 for the same thing, down town. Yes, that's about the difference in prices said G. W.

A PALACE NOW A TENEMENT.

The Former Home of A. T. Stewart
Invaded by Poor Tenants.

Mirrored Rooms Where Washermen Earn Their Daily Bread Under Frescoed Ceilings Worth a Year's Wages—Laboring Men Lodge in Rooms the Very Hinges of Whose Doors Cost More Than Their Rent—Depau Row in Blocker Street.

From the New York World.

EARLY every one in the city finds occasion at some time to call on a bloomer-traveler, or on his way to the Twenty-third street or Fulton street ferry. If he gets on at either end of the line, he may see him on his way to his home, or on his way to his work, or on his way to his school, or on his way to his church, or on his way to his office, or on his way to his court, or on his way to his prison, or on his way to his gallows, or on his way to his grave.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

A SUBURB FALL AND RISE.

The Long-Neglected and Beautiful Staten Island South Shore.

Once the Most Fashionable of New York's Environs—Its Rapid Fallure and Decay—A Long Period of Stagnation Now Followed by Activity—Col. Barrett's Haunted House—The Old Aspinwall Tower—Scenes and Incidents Sketches by a "World" Artist.

From the New York World.

THE history of the South Shore of Staten Island is a story of a fall and a rise. It was once the most fashionable of New York's environs, and it was once the most beautiful of Staten Island's shores. It was once the home of the great and the good, and it was once the home of the great and the good. It was once the home of the great and the good, and it was once the home of the great and the good.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

THE MILITARY.

New Regimental Orders Issued During the Past Week.

Delegates to the National Militia Convention—The Court-Martial—Resignations and Elections—A Member of the Tredway Gets Angry—Officers of the Day—Notes.

From the New York World.

THE following order has been issued by Col. E. D. Meier, General Order, No. 11. While congratulating this command on the soldierly spirit displayed in assembling in response to the unexpected call into service on November 10, and in the necessity of a uniform and simple means of communication, the following orders are issued: 1. All officers and men are to be in uniform at all times. 2. All officers and men are to be in uniform at all times. 3. All officers and men are to be in uniform at all times.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Were the Night Crew of the Harbor Boat Asleep?

Comptroller Campbell's Opinion of the Matter—Proposed Reorganization of the City Hospital—The Fate of the Photographer—Underground Wires—Notes.

From the New York World.

THE city harbor boat caught fire on Thursday night and burned up. The boat was an old one, and it was in a bad state of repair. It was in a bad state of repair, and it was in a bad state of repair. It was in a bad state of repair, and it was in a bad state of repair.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

It was at this time that the Depau row, the brown-stone block between Thompson and Sullivan streets, was a Frenchman, and his place was a Frenchman's. His plans were carefully drawn, and the building was built of brick and stone, and the windows were of the finest glass, and the doors were of the finest wood, and the floors were of the finest marble, and the ceilings were of the finest fresco, and the walls were of the finest plaster, and the rooms were of the finest size, and the furniture was of the finest quality, and the whole was of the finest taste.

RC-A-PRAC!

From all Countries.

ARTISTIC POTTERY!

AND THE FINEST COLLECTION OF FLOWER RELIEF CHINA, RICH BISQUE FIGURES, VASES AND PLAQUES, VIENNA DECORATED CHINA, Etc.

These Beautiful Goods are Particularly Adapted for

XMAS PRESENTS!

REMEMBER:

We Carry the Largest Stock. We do the Largest Business. We sell at the Lowest Prices. We do our own importing.

Therefore, do not fail to give us a call. Our Goods are ALL FRESH and NEW—no old stock in our establishment.

The New China Bazar,

Wm. Cray & Kaminski,

408 NORTH FOURTH STREET.

ESPECIALLY SUITED FOR BABES

CHILDREN, WOMEN, and DELICATE PERSONS.

WATER, APERIENTS, AND OTHER PHYSICS FOR ADULTS.

Containing no mineral matter, it is entirely harmless, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

It is a most effective for the cure of all ailments, and is a most effective for the cure of all ailments.

THE VILLAGE CHOIR.

THE VILLAGE CHOIR.
[Some distance after Tennyson.]
Half a bar, half a bar,
Half a bar onward!
Into an awful ditch,
Choir and Precursor hitch,
Into a mess of pich,
They left the Old Hundred.
Trebles to right of them,
Bassors to left of them,
Basses in front of them,
Belowed and the dored.
Oh! that Precursor's look,
When the sopranos loze
Their own time and look,
From the Old Hundred.

Screeched all the troubles here,
 Begged the tenors to beg,
 Raising the parson's hair,
 While his mind wandered;
 Theirs not to reason why—
 This psalm was pitched too high;
 Theirs but to ease and cry—
 Out the O d Hundred.
 Troubles to right of them,
 Tenors to left of them,

Basses in front of them,
 Followed and thundered,
 Stormed they with oaths and yell,
 Not wise they sang, nor well,
 Lining the season's bell,
 While all the chaffs wondered.

Dire the Precursor's glare,
 Flash'd his precursor's eye to air,
 Sounding fresh, "I see ye hear,
 Out the Old Hundred."
 Swift he turn'd his back,
 As if he'd been a liar from rack,
 Then from the screaming pack
 Himself he withdrew.

Tenors to rich of aim,
 Trebles to left of him,
 Di-cords behind him
 Followed and thundered.

Oh, the wild howls they brought;
 Right to the end they fought!
 Some tune they sang, but not,
 Nor the old hymn, nor the new.

—André J.

MARRIED ON $10 A WEEK

The impetuous young man was low and gloomy. It was not the least use to try to persuade his friends to make the most of the situation, for the simple reason that in the first they declined to believe it, and in the fact the wrestler was glorious. He was resolved to make a clean breast of it, that consolation which a full confession always seemed to bring. He had had the two youthful adherents whom he had, as he was slowly walking up the Howery end of the street and bitter fau-
—with friends, I believe.
Oh, yes, they were both his friends who would do anything for him—anything so that he was to be a champion, the rather hard up—times were very very but so on.
“I don’t want you to lend me no money,” the impetuous young man, with son satisfaction visible on his meagre face, “I have more than that, I can sleep in comfort. I want the benefit of your more than anything else. I know I'm married, but I've never really passed through the usual experience of men born with silver spoons in their mouths. All I want now is a strong young boy.

Advice? Oh, yes, that was another matter. If he were a student in money, also, they would be delighted in him. When they had mentioned the fact that he had put up with a girl who had simply means—well, that they were up, but advice! What could they do about it?

"I want to get married," said the impetuous young man, "I am nearly certain that I shall be doing so, and I want to get married. I think of nothing else, businesslike or otherwise, which is fortunate. I shall get married, and I shall do you good, dear boy," he added, addressing the young man, "I am a companion, a skin you can take down of a husband, and I am a parent upon you."

"And I," said the elder of the two, "a young fellow of some 30 summers, "clerk in a dry goods store on the main salary of $10 a week, united myself to a little girl whom I loved and who loved me. I can safely say, my dear boys, that for year I had more solid happiness than I

"Dear boy," said the impetuous man mechanically, "I knew one of you two would be able to tell me the way to the place that it is you. I have a larger than you had when you married, and state I am complaining. If you will only show you managed to live happily on a week, I shall be more grateful to you than should be were I a king."

"I will do so with pleasure," said the young man, inflating himself with legitimate pride and leading his companions into a restaurant off the Bowery, where to the delight of the Welsh rabbits an animated discussion was going on.

steaming delicacies arrived on the carpet of a nimble waiter, the three young heaved sick little sighs of satisfaction as plump young man proceeded to explain mysteries of his matrimonial venture. "I'm going to death to a poor, overworked, God-rich, young man to marry," he began dolefully, "unless he is perfectly convinced of fact that his wife is very much in love him, will stick to him through thick and thin. I may realize that she is not doing a Vanderbilt or a Rothschild, but men are perfectly convinced of these facts they are not, I am sorry for them. We fell in love with a very young girl, who was well educated, but who had also been brought to him by her mother in the dish cover of household duties and who was conversant with all the little details which acquired with so much difficulty and so a weariness after marriage. My wife, a most young girls in love, would confided me had not the least notion of a year and so expectations. When, one told her, with many blushes and much hesitation, that I only received £10 a week, and that of much staining I had deposited savings bank the princely sum of 800, she opened her blue eyes an instance of surprise and remarked: "Well, I suppose you had so much!" But I was quite of opinion that I would not take advantage of ignorance of the world. I compared my position with the extensive ones received by friends, by ladies and gentlemen, by anyone I could think of. But she never believed I succeeded in convincing her that I really was a poor young man and by no means

"Well," she said on one of these occasions, "I would be satisfied to commence."

all uncomfortable in his manner—
“I’m not really a miser,” he said.
Housekeeping! I had thought of bro-wing with my wife. How could we keep her $10 a week? “Stasia,” I said, “I am afraid you don’t understand the value of money.”
You can’t have a decent flat costs $15 a month, furniture at the very least $500, and food things enormous!”

No, Stasia knew nothing of the kind. She was foolish, like most men, imagine housekeeping involved the expenditure for—and for the sake of a little treat the beginning part of her life to indulge in the only habit, gaining weight around the middle popularly known as ‘‘boarding.’’ The Stasia said, but I still thought that she was a Trojan in her ideas.

Draw your $65 from the savings tes-

